M.: W.: James W. Ford,
Grand Master

You have made my job pleasant and so enjoyable and I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

I also want to say how thankful I am to God for the many Blessings that have been provided. Yes, there have been many challenges, but in our journey through life there ever walks beside us an Eternal Friend whose all powerful hand is always ready to guide and support us through all the difficulties and trials that may come to us.

I offer my thanks to the Elected Grand Lodge Officers and the Appointed Grand Lodge Officers for their support and to their Ladies for supporting and helping Tracey in such a loving and helpful manner.

I want to thank the District Deputy Grand Masters and their Ladies for their support and the hospitality and reception at the Official Visits. Your efforts and hard work were truly outstanding. Also, I appreciate your efforts in conveying my message and my slogan – “Expect Perfection – Settle for Excellence” and the theme of “Friendship, Morality, and Brotherly Love”.

I want to thank all the District Instructors and the State and Zone Chairmen for their efforts in communicating the various Grand Lodge Programs to the Craft. You are a vital part of the success or failure of these programs and I thank you for all you do. I also thank all who serve on the various panels and committees for your service and dedication.

I want to thank Ms. Wendy John, my Personal Secretary and Grand Lodge Office Manager, and her staff for all the work they do at the Grand Lodge Office and for their dedication to our Fraternity. Their efforts are outstanding.

To Mrs. Lisa Tsotsos, Administrator of the Masonic Home, and her staff, I thank you for providing such a wonderful place of security and

A Message From The Grand Master

WOW!! WOW!! WOW!! The end of another Masonic Year draws near and as we approach the 186th Annual Grand Communication, I want express my appreciation to the Craft and to the Ladies for the friendship and support you have provided to my daughter Tracey and I. Your friendship and support has meant so much to both of us and you have made us feel welcome and at home where ever we traveled.

comfort for the Residents. We had a great Pilgrimage Day and the First Lady’s Project was a huge success. We thank everyone for the many donations and on behalf of Tracey and I, you have our deepest gratitude. Joy would have been so proud.

To the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home, I thank you for a very engaging year and a year of hard work and dedication. Thank you for your efforts to bring about stabilization and action that will move us into the future.

I want to thank each and every Member of the Craft for giving me the opportunity to serve as your Grand Master. The opportunity to meet and interact with so many wonderful people has been an opportunity beyond belief and I can’t thank you enough.

In addition, I want to thank my wife Joy for her support. Although, she could not be with me the last two years, it just was not to be, she has been at my side with every step I’ve taken, and the words “there are angels among us” has a very deep meaning for many of us. My daughter, Tracey, has been a true Blessing and has been with me in all my travels and I thank her for being there for me and for her mother. She has truly made this a remarkable year and I thank everyone for providing her with such overwhelming love and support.

In conclusion, I want to thank the Craft for truly engaging the spirit of “Friendship, Morality, and Brotherly Love.” With your help and understanding we have been able to reduce and eliminate many charges and trials and we will move into the new year with only a couple issues pending. I continue to urge you to solve our problems through good communications in a Brother to Brother manner.

I look forward to seeing everyone at Grand Lodge and now may God Bless each and every one of you, may God Bless our great Fraternity, and may God Bless the United States of America and all who serve it!

Sincerely and Fraternally,

respect, and educate one another within our great Fraternity; communicate openly with each other. Assist our Brothers and families in need. Respect each other, both inside and outside of the walls of our Lodges. Educate all to prepare for your future. C.A.R.E. Brothers we must CARE; display our morals, honor, and integrity and work together in peace and harmony at all times thus characterizing us as Freemasons! Only then will we, the Craft, become Freemasons United Together Under Ritual Ethics or FUTURE. Brothers we must begin now to CARE for our FUTURE!

I read an article in the Knights Templar that mirrored some of my thoughts in regards to the direction our Fraternity is taking.

VOLUME LXI - May 2015 NUMBER 5

“The Magazine for York Rite Masons-and Others, too” Masonic Philosophical Differences in the 21st Century by Sir Knight John L. Palmer

“Brother Palmer states, there are two different interpretations. One interpretation is that this phenomenon of rising and falling Membership is a natural one and that there is little that can be done about it except wait it out. There is clearly a relation between large wars and Masonic Membership, but that relationship is not understood well enough to control the results. Those who take this position believe that we have no real control over the situation and that we certainly do not want to destroy Freemasonry by engaging in radical, knee-jerk reaction. I call these the “Status-Quos” and will tell you more about them later. Another interpretation of the data is that these Status-Quos somehow caused the problem, and that it needs to be solved in an entirely different manner than that suggested by the Neo-Moderns.

A Message From The Deputy Grand Master

Words cannot express the feelings I have lodged within my breast. The Craft has seen fit to elect me and give me the opportunity to serve our great Fraternity.

As we close one successful Masonic Year and embark on another, I call on every Mason and their families to support the programs and the committees and the Brothers selected to head them.

My vision this coming year is to find a way to better communicate, assist,

These folks were in agreement with the Neo-Moderns that something had to be done, because they believed that as numbers swelled, the character, intellect, and focus of the Membership declined. Although the numbers increased, the entire nature and purpose of the organization faded away. An individual sitting alone, mouth to ear; this is too inefficient, and the young men aren’t even trained to learn that way anymore. They no longer have this kind of patience. Isn’t the entire ritual published somewhere on the internet anyway, so what is the harm in videotaping it? This is the position of those who I call Neo-Moderns, and although some of these folks have tried this approach and determined by measured results that it was not successful, these folks seem to be supplanting the Status-Quos in positions of leadership in several of our Grand Lodges and some of the Appendant Bodies, notably the Shrine. The Shrine has already relaxed its standards to eliminate the requirement of membership in one of the rites. This position of the Shrine is completely understandable. The organization has only two stated purposes, to support the charities and to Fellowship. Moreover, they have been among the hardest hit from the Membership decline, and the cost of their hospitals is spiraling up. So where do these new kids on the block, the Neo-Ancients, stand on all this? First, while they are appreciative of the Status-Quos for preserving the Fraternity all these years, they feel that we have gone too far in the United States with this “on the level” thing by extending it to profanes. Good Masons allow a marginally “good man” to become a member in the confident expectation that exposure to the Fraternity will polish his rough edges. This man brings in someone who is marginally “less good” than he with the hope that Freemasonry will “make him better.” Eventually you have a situation where we are having Masonic Trials to try to get rid of those who are damaging the reputation of 23 Knight Templar the Fraternity and destroying its harmony, men who obviously do not have the character to fulfill their obligations or perhaps the understanding to know what they are.”

Take the time to read the full article and see if you agree we are moving in a downward spiral direction. Assist me in taking action to change the direction.

A Message From The Senior Grand Warden

It's that time of the year I have come to dislike, the email that says it's time for your message for The Florida Mason. What to write? Is it going to be a "kumbaya" message, an inspiring message, or a get it off my chest message? I have chosen none of the above! I am going to write about the reflection of the past year.

After the Southeast Conference Meeting in August of last year I shared with you, the Craft, the discussions held, little did I know where that would take me. I have held several "Town Hall Meetings" around the state about Lodge Mergers and Consolidations. This to my surprise was met with a great deal of success. To date there are approximately 10 to 15 Lodges in the state of discussing the need and the possibility of merging. There have been four Lodges that have already merged.

What we fail to recognize is that in life all things will come to an end. I have used the analogy of a Great Oak Tree that stood tall on the property of our Masonic Home. One day a large limb broke off and fell to the ground, upon inspection we found the core of the tree to be dead and nothing to hold the weight of the limbs on the tree except the shell. After several meetings, phone calls, and "horse beatings" on how to save the tree we called in an Arborist; after he inspected the tree he informed us it had reached the end of its life and needed to come down.

Many of our Lodges have had the core die with nothing but the shell left. Through no fault of the tree or the Lodge, the time has come; we all have a choice; do nothing and let it fall down around us or join forces and strengthen the foundation and the core from within. The choice is ours.

This is not the end but the beginning of our Fraternity, to strengthen it for the economic and declining times we are going through. I have stated that today more than any other time, our country needs the moral lessons and basic tenants that our Fraternity hold so dear to our hearts. We need to stand strong and we need to be visible to all who come to us for the Light that shines in our Fraternity.

I am looking forward to seeing you all at our Grand Lodge Session with Most Worshipful Jim Ford in May.

Fraternally,

A Message From The South

My Brothers,

I look back on this first year as your humble servant, and wonder where did it go? We have traveled the State, country, and even to Vancouver for the GMCNA. I have met a lot of very interesting, informative, and wonderful Masons throughout our travels. I have you, the Craft of Florida, to thank for this opportunity and I look forward to continued efforts on your behalf.

As we reach the new Masonic Year, I look to you, the Craft, for continued support. Your thoughts and concerns have been heard, conversed about, and changes are coming together. Re-Zoning and Re-Districting continue to be topics of great importance to our Fraternity. Keeping our Grand Lodge Budget as well as our Masonic Home Budget within our means, while also looking to our future needs is of great importance to us all. We need you, the Craft, to assist in these efforts. We, your Grand Lodge Officers, will continue to discuss these efforts at all of our visits and ask for your input. The future of your Fraternity is our main goal.

I see our Fraternity with a Bright future. This future is not only for us, but for the incoming Masons. I will be asking the Craft to give me your thoughts and input on "short of time" Degrees. I will NOT be advocating One Day Classes. Whatever is done, will be done with the Crafts approval. We have over 2300 Masons over the past 5 years who have not completed their Masonic Degrees. I will be trying to find the answer for this and bring as many as possible back into becoming active and productive Members of our Lodges.

Again, I thank you for your support and continued efforts for our Fraternity.

Fraternally,

R. W. Richard G. Hoover

A Message From The Grand Secretary

It is hard to believe that February 2015 marked my 8th year serving as your Grand Secretary. Thank you for this opportunity to be of service to the Craft. Each day proposes a new challenge and experience. I enjoy traveling and renewing friendships and meeting many Brothers for the first time.

I am excited to inform you that during the Grand Lodge Session on May 24 through 27, 2015, many of you will have the opportunity to review the new Membership System. This past year we have had three Secretary and Treasurer Seminars and the attendees had the opportunity to see a demonstration. The responses were very encouraging. It is predicted this system will not only assist the Secretaries in the day to day duties it will help improve the service to the Membership and reduce the number of Members being dropped for non-payment of dues.

A complete overhaul of the Grand Lodge computer network servers has been completed. This will enable the staff to better serve you, the Membership, and protect our valuable data.

Speaking of the staff at the Grand Lodge Office; we have the finest dedicated staff all willing to go far beyond the normal requirements to be of service to the Lodges and the Membership. Under the direction of Wendy John, the Officer Manger, we have a well-oiled machine that never stops improving; always striving for excellence.

After the Grand Lodge Session I will be traveling to all the Districts to assist and train the Lodge Officers and Members on how to sign up on the new Membership Program. I hope to see you there.

Our Membership in 1981 was 83,158; decreased to 71,630 in 1991; and to 53,381 in 2004. The total loss for 2014 was 1,825 leaving us with a total Membership of 41,134. It is not losses to the Grim Reaper; it is losses due to non-payment of dues that contributes to these increases in losses. We cannot control the Grim Reaper but we can help our Lodges by assisting the Secretary in contacting the Brothers suspended or about to be suspended due to non-payment of dues. Sometimes all it takes is a call and an invitation to attend Lodge.

I am proud to be your Grand Secretary and I am only a call away if you need me.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

M. W. Richard E. Lynn, P.G.M.

Grand Secretary

A Message From The Grand Treasurer

Brethren,

It seems only yesterday that we began a new Grand Lodge year with M. W. Jim Ford and now it is the beginning of another. A time of new Officers, new programs, and new goals. M. W. Ford had a very successful year with many goals met, and one of the more visible ones is the new wheelchair van at the Masonic Home. The old van had over two hundred thousand miles on it and the new one is a much more comfortable, reliable, and safer means of transporting the Residents to their many appointments. The Craft truly stepped up with their donations to make a dream come true.

One of the great programs we have in the Grand Jurisdiction of Florida is the Masonic License Tag. Not all states have a Masonic Tag but ours is available at your local tag agency for your purchase. What a great way to show your Masonic Pride as you drive each day both in your local area and out of town trips. There is a certain level of sales necessary for us to maintain our tag and if we fall below that level, there is a chance we could lose the Masonic Tag altogether. I would urge you, if you do not have one on your vehicle, please give careful consideration on purchasing one in the near future. It not only identifies you as a Mason, shows that you are proud to be a Mason, and helps our Masonic Home as well.

We would certainly like to invite you to visit us here at the Grand Lodge Building. Our District Meeting will be on July 25th and in the afternoon prior to the District Meeting we will be having the picture hanging of M. W. Jim Ford in the museum. This would be a great time for you to visit, tour the museum, witness the picture hanging ceremony and then attend the District 11 and 12 District Meeting.

We are looking forward to a great year with our new Grand Master and seeing many of you in our travels. May God richly bless you, your family and your Lodge, and may he continue to bless our great Country.

Fraternally,

M. W. Elmer Coffman, P.G.M.

Marion-Dunn loads up two of Santa's sleighs...

Don't read this if you are a Scrooge or Grinch!!

Some photos of the two large van loads of Christmas presents (food, drinks and personal items) that the Masonic Brethren and general public donated to the unfortunate children seeking shelter with their mothers at the Ocala Domestic Violence Shelter.

What a tremendous outpouring of the Christmas spirit at Marion-Dunn Freemason Lodge!!

Also presented was $600 in cash and checks to help assure 22 children will have a TRULY Merry Christmas during a very difficult time in their lives, The items were presented to Bonnie Tieche and then delivered promptly to the Ocala Domestic Abuse Shelter for the 22 unfortunate children victims seeking refuge the next few weeks at the shelter. Many of the children and mother's come without anything but the clothes on their backs.

We want to thank all who stepped up to meet the challenge. It's touching to see the good we can all accomplish as a team. There is unity in numbers. Marion-Dunn Lodge Members, Shriners, Morning Star Lodge, local Boy Scout Troop, several employees from Lange Eye Care, and many other Members of our wonderful community stepped up to donate.

Ron Hardy, in charge of running the Lodge for 2014, helped direct the Lodge Brethren in assuring Christmas would NOT be forgotten at the Abuse Shelter. What a great, heartwarming experience..

Past Master Or Put Out To Pasture

It was December 1982 when "the night" finally arrived. I had served my year in the East with enthusiasm, dedicated to bringing my Lodge and our Fraternity back to the basics that had once made it great. The words, "We do not need more men in Masonry, but more Masonry in men," were not taken lightly, but rather directed my course of action throughout my year. I was now a Past Master having fulfilled my duties in that office.

Like most Past Masters, there were the prerequisite feelings that accompanied the move out of the chair. Did I do a good job? Did I make a difference?

Where do I go from here? Almost any Past Master will tell you that there is a great sense of relief when their year is completed, and the Jewel and Apron is passed to the new Worshipful Brother who assumes the chair you have kept warm for him over the last twelve months. However, in reality, for the vast majority of us, there is a great sense of regret. We were just becoming proficient at our jobs when it became time to move on. "Past Master or Put Out To Pasture?"

After receiving my Past Master's Apron from my Lodge, I realized that the Past Master's Apron alone, did not make me a Past Master, and if the question is to be asked, "Past Master or Put Out To Pasture?" then it is a question that can only be answered by we who are now Past Masters. For the simple point of fact is that the choice is entirely up to us. We can, like many that have passed the office of Worshipful Master, drift silently into the crowd and not attend Lodge again. Sadly, this is a phenomenon in many Lodges today. We can, as many Past Masters become sideliners and criticize those who follow behind us for not doing things right. Sadly, this too, is a growing phenomenon in many of our Lodges. As for me, I have opted for another option here in the "Past Master's Pasture."

I see the pasture as a green valley full of opportunities. A place where I can graze and eat within all the rich opportunities afforded to my Fellow Past Masters; a place where we can learn from those coming up behind us and from those who have gone on before us. The choice is ours to graze or grieve. I have chosen to graze until the day when I can graze no longer. It is my hope that many of you Past Masters will join me in this fertile and plentiful pasture, where we can with gentleness and experience, offer ourselves to our Lodge in whatever capacity we may be serviceable to it. When I was young in the Craft all the Past Masters seemed to be very old, very important and very austere. Now that I am one myself and I look around, they all seem very young, very ordinary, and very approachable.

Neither a Mason nor a Worshipful Master should be judged solely by the results of his labors. One might strive with all his heart and all his strength, yet not be entirely successful in comparison with one to whom certain things came easily. Masonry teaches us to try to make an effort, and the amount of that effort would be the gauge by which to determine the result.

To all the Past Masters, I wish you well, and may the Grand Architect of the Universe always have you in His keeping and bring you back again to your Lodge and your Brethren in safety, health, and happiness.

Ashlar Lodge No. 98 - 2015 Installation of Officers

Ashlar Lodge No. 98, Free and Accepted Masons located in St. Augustine, FL, installed officers for the 2015 Masonic Year on Saturday, December 27, 2014, at the Lodge. Traditionally, Freemasons set aside December 27 to Honor St. John the Evangelist, one of the two Patron Saints of the Fraternity.

Officers installed during the ceremony included: W.: Christopher Cannan, Worshipful Master; Bro. James Bailey, Senior Warden; Bro. Oscar Patterson III, Junior Warden; Bro. Robert Gagnon, Treasurer; Bro. David Pierucci, Secretary; Bro. James Davis, Chaplain; Bro. Fred H. Bozard IV, Senior Deacon; Bro. Matthew Sweeney, Junior Deacon; Bro. Kenneth Schaffner, Senior Steward; Bro. Stephen Hohman, Junior Steward; Bro. Ron DeRoco, Tyler, Bro. Ted Cassford, Musician; and Bro. Robert Wilson, Marshal.

Ashlar Lodge No. 98 was Chartered on January 1, 1888, by The Grand Lodge of Florida, but, Freemasonry in East Florida can be traced back to the Establishment of a Military Lodge under the Grand Lodge of England in 1762. Even the "Monument de la Constitution 1812" on the Plaza in St. Augustine indicates the Fraternity's influence in St. Augustine with a Masonic symbol clearly visible on the monument's plaque.

Making Good Men Better

By Bro. Ken Baril

Making good men better is to extract the essence of the Masonic experience. The ritual and ceremony serve to convey and teach certain moral lessons and elevate the individuals to a position higher than themselves. The lessons are things you have likely already heard or have learned in a moral society. What makes them unique to Freemasonry is that they are presented in a specific format and context. We have come to realize, during the time we have been Members of this Grand Fraternity that we have met men we would have never met otherwise. We had the opportunity to get to know these men, not by their looks or touch, but by their hearts, minds, and souls. If we would have passed any of these men on the street before we became Masons, the chances are we would not have noticed them.

We have met numerous men who have truly touched our hearts in many ways. We have learned through their example to be more compassionate, more understanding, more forgiving, more sincere, and above all, more loving. Not one of these men has an uncharitable disposition; therefore, they are all true Masons.

Masonry strives to teach its Members that it would be great if we could convey this message throughout the whole world in ways we would have never thought possible.

We look to build on the positive example of others and bring those virtues, which are beneficial to them and to ourselves. No man is perfect, and we are taught that the Lodge is a moral workshop in which the rough ashlar is to be polished for use and beauty. If our Lodges had been too exacting, none of us would have gained admission.

As Masons, we should treat those Brothers who have unfavorable and irritable traits, not with bitterness, nor with good-natured easiness, not with worldly indifference, nor with philosophic coldness, but with pity, patience, and loving kindness. At our Altar of Obligation, we learn to look for the best in men, find their strong points, and cast aside the negative and unfavorable traits. We are taught that we should attempt to see the best in our Brethren, to cast the best light on their actions, to see them and to hear their words in the most positive light, in the most CHARITABLE light. We are also taught to have a benevolent goodwill toward, or love, for humanity and be lenient in our judgment of others. This most benevolent Brotherhood has men of good character.

We meet Brothers who may be ignorant, weak, or even ugly of spirit, driven by some blind force as all of us are apt to be and if so, our tact, and Brotherly love and charity may be tested and tried, but more often than not, we can bring them back to intelligence, strength, and beauty. As the Bible states, “Judge not, lest ye be judged.” Truly, this is a wise saying, no less true today than when first said. As the old Greek said, “Know thyself,” because if we do not know ourselves, we cannot know others. It behooves us to put ourselves under the spell of all the influences God is using for the making of man, among which the spirit of Masonry is one of the gentlest, wisest and most benign.

If our erring Brothers must be censored or expelled, they must also be treated with compassion. The Supreme Architect of the Universe waits to welcome them back with joy. They have done themselves a far deeper injury than they have anyone else. With empathy, prayer, and pain, let our hearts beat in harmony with all the powers the Supreme Architect of the Universe is using for their recovery.

“There remain Faith, Hope, and Charity; but the greatest of these, is Charity.”

As Master Masons, we have learned the Five Points of Fellowship, and these lessons should be foremost in our minds. This is how we, as Masons, “Make Good Men Better!” SKB

“ALAS MY BROTHER”

Last evening, about six-thirty,
I went to a visitation
For a departed Brother of a Masonic Lodge
Without any hesitation.

I slowly entered the funeral home,
Rather solemnly, I confess.
I thought I would be greeted by many
Of his Masonic Brothers, no less.

Only three of his Lodge Brother’s were present,
While the family sat alone.
Where is all the Brotherly Love
His Brothers should have shown?

Not only was I embarrassed,
For I could feel the family’s pain,

Of not seeing their loved ones Brothers,
As the mourners went and came.
The Masonic oaths we took on bended knee,
Should mean much more than this.

Have we lost sight of what they mean?
My Brothers, something surely is amiss.

We certainly have an obligation,
To make time to say Good-bye:
Eternity is a long, long, time
For tear filled eyes to dry.

Although many of your Brothers are not here,
To say their last farewell,
I am here to say my last Good-bye,
Alas, my Brother, sleep well!

Following in the Family Footsteps

On Saturday, December 6, 2014, Dade City Lodge No.48 Raised Bro. Edward George “Ted” Willoughby to the Third Degree of Freemasonry. On that day, Ted was age 18 years, two months and 19 days, making him possibly the youngest Master Mason in the State’s History.

Presiding over the Degree was W.:M.: Lucky Lee and DDGM R.:W.: Lynn Reposa, who had participated in Brother Ted’s previous Degrees. Bro. James Austin, Sr. served as Brother Ted’s instructor.

Members of Dade City, Trilby, Hillsborough, Ridge, Floral City and Brooksville Lodges also participated in the Degree and all signed a Masonic Bible that was presented to him. That evening, Brother Ted had the honor of meeting M.:W.: James Ford at his homecoming at the Tampa Scottish Rite Lodge.

When asked what becoming a Mason means to him, Brother Ted said, “It’s about following in my Father’s Footsteps and becoming part of an international Brotherhood where I can help and be helped whenever and wherever needed.”

Through his church and school, he has participated in several mission trips and other community service projects. Becoming a Mason and finding new ways to positively impact his world is a natural extension of that. The Masonic tradition is part of Brother Ted's family, too. His great-grandfather, George McClellan, was a Member of Roslindale (MA) Masonic Lodge. His grandmother, Suzanne Carter, belonged to Order of the Eastern Star in both Yarmouth, MA, and Vero Beach, FL, and his mother, Pamela Carter Willoughby, is Past Worthy Advisor of Yarmouth (MA) Assembly No. 118, International Order of Rainbow Girls.

Brother Ted is a Member of Paul Revere Chapter of DeMolay, Sponsored by Hillsborough Lodge No. 25. Several of the Advisory Board Members participated in Brother Ted’s Raising. He is a senior at Wesley Chapel High School and will be attending Florida Polytechnic University in Lakeland, where he plans to major in industrial and mechanical engineering, with an emphasis on robotics and materials.

Brooker Elementary School Awards Assembly

January 14, 2015 By Ted Barber

On behalf of Brooker’s Pine Hill Lodge No. 9, Free and Accepted Masons, Ted Barber, Secretary of Pine Hill Lodge No. 9, presented six awards to Brooker Elementary School Students for their input to “Why They Love America.”

Barber also presented the “Adopt-A-School” Grand Lodge of Florida Certificate to Mrs. Deborah Parmenter, School Principal, and an Honorary Lodge Membership for Brother Ray Davis, Member of Gainesville Lodge No. 41, to Pine Hill Lodge No. 9. Right Worshipful Ray Davis provided a short historical program about the American Revolution wearing his famous 1776 American Revolutionary War Uniform.

To accomplish the activities mentioned above, two BES School assemblies were required starting at 8:00 AM to accommodate the Brooker Elementary School Students, parents, teachers, administrators and guests. Barber told the audience that Pine Hill Lodge appreciated Brooker Elementary School’s desire to challenge the students for the past four years with the “Why I Love America” Contest since it is a “Win-Win” program. The students get an early exposure to Americanism where the teachers evaluate the students learning progress and ability to communicate their thoughts on paper and the Freemasons of Brooker’s Pine Hill Lodge enjoy a positive interaction with the community

Barber introduced the Members of Brooker’s Pine Hill Lodge No. 9 and Members of Lake Butler Chapter No. 40, Order of the Eastern Star, that were at the Brooker Elementary School Assemblies to include: W. . Murry “Gene” Eugene Bertine, Worshipful Master of Pine Hill Lodge No. 9, Otis Tetstone, Lodge Treasurer, Jefferson Davis, Lodge Chaplain, John McKibben, Last year’s Worshipful Master and present Marshall, Bob Haines, Senior Warden, Ray Davis, Honorary Member of Pine Hill Lodge, Colan Coody, Honorary Member of Pine Hill Lodge, Lila Barber, Treasurer of Lake Butler Chapter No. 40, and Shirley Thomas, Associate Matron of Lake Butler Chapter No. 4.

The Universality of Masonry

By Rev. Bro. Melville B. Herron

On September 25th, 2014, I received information that my son Melville Dwayne Herron, accompanied by his wife Ashley, was in an accident in the Dominican Republic. They were in a Taxi travelling from the Airport to the hotel when the taxi was hit head-on by another vehicle. His wife died on the scene and my son was seriously injured and needed immediate blood transfusions and repair of multiple fractures.

He needed approximately 8 units of rare “O” Negative blood of which only two units were available. I emailed the information to The Most Worshipful Grand Master of Masons of the State of New York, Honorable William J. Thomas, who in turn communicated the information to The Grand Lodge of The Dominican Republic. A short time thereafter, I received a copy of an email sent from The Grand Lodge of The Dominican Republic. Within one hour thereafter, I received a copy of an email from The Grand Lodge of the Dominican Republic, stating: “A Member of The Grand Lodge of the Dominican Republic, along with two other Brothers, one of whom is a Medical Doctor, are on their way from Santo Domingo, to visit Dwayne, approximately 120 miles away. Soon thereafter, it would appear that a Clarion call was made from The Grand Lodge of the Dominican Republic to Brother Masons for blood, and the Medical Facility was able to do the necessary surgery needed to preserve my son Dwayne. Within a few days, Dwayne was airlifted to the nearest Trauma Center in the United States on October 3rd 2014 and continues to improve.

This brings another incident to mind. A few years ago, a Brother’s Wife went to her native country for a short vacation. While she was there, thieves broke in her room and stole cash and important documents,including her Passport. She could not leave the country without those documents. She tried everything on her own to no avail. Her husband contacted The Grand Lodge of New York, who in turn contacted The Grand Lodge of Columbia, and voila! Within days, his wife was on her way home in the United States.

Do not underestimate the influence of the Greatest Fraternity that was ever conceived by the imagination of man.

Let me make this as clear is possible. Masonry has no limits when it comes to good works towards humanity.

Somewhere in history, it is rightly and wisely written: Although but one man among many, you cannot escape or shrink your share in this great responsibility. Your personal contact with others may be circumscribed by the limit of the circle within which your daily life is lived; but your influence passing through and from those whom that circle may surround, will reach further than you can conceive.

Masonry bids you do your best in that which lies nearest to you; to see in your neighbor what you desire your neighbor should see in you, to remember that there is no term so often used within our midst, no words more freighted with the strength of man's very best characteristics, no claim so glistening with the ties of honest affection, as our password of greeting, “My Brother”!

What Makes Us Different?

We owe our being to those who came before us. We are here because they were here, and of the way, their lives unfolded. Imagine, if you will, the countless chance happenings, the many coincidences and accidents, all of which had to come about in the precise way they did, in order to result in our being here, and, being what we are!

Each of us attends our Lodge Meetings because we want to. We attend because we firmly believe beyond any doubt, that due to our efforts, we are making this world a better place. But what makes us as Masons, different from Members of other Fraternal Organizations? We are Members of what the Masonic community refers to as, “The Greatest Fraternity in the world.” This is quite a powerful statement!

I believe we are different as Masons because the instinct to become a Mason was born in us. I don’t believe the subtle hints that may have been directed to us at one time or another by a Mason to a non-Mason has anything to do with our becoming a Member. Sooner, or later, we would have joined because inwardly, the calling was already there, and would eventually emerge when the time was right.

However strange this reasoning may seem, let’s investigate further. Each man who becomes a Member of our Grand Fraternity is someone very special; someone who has a certain quality of character distinguishing him from others. These qualities do not imply we are better than others but the burning desire within us to help our fellowman burns at a much higher degree of intensity than most. It is not a superficial desire, as it is a deep one. No man kneels at our Altar of Obligation and arises the same man. The oaths we have taken at that Altar of Obligation are deeply imbedded in our minds and we practice the tenets of our order towards all humankind, well after the Master has closed his Lodge, while we are constantly reminded of the, “Point within a Circle.” Each one of us, as Masons, practice our tenets, as the younger generations refer to as, “twenty-four seven.”

We are men of strong convictions and we are not, swayed easily. We are extremely patriotic and have within our ranks many true American heroes. We consider all men as our equal and look down upon no one but I have learned that a man has the right to look down on others, only when he is helping them up. We extend our hand to the fallen and the down trodden as a token of our Brotherly love, and, under no circumstance does any sound of distress reach our ears in vain, or any outstretched hand seeks our aid without response. Each of us has a very strong connection to Deity and our cable-tow is that connection. I firmly believe that here, within the Temple of Masonry, men differing in language, in modes of thought, in dress and in habits of life, are able to meet around a common altar, share a common hope, and seek a common ideal.

These mental images do not seem to appear in other Fraternal Organizations. We have been taught in our beloved order, the relative importance of self-analysis to the duties of life. Each day or night, when we review our actions, behavior and thoughts, and attempt to see how they coincide with our own philosophy, and measure up to the standards outlined by the Craft, we improve ourselves as better men and better Masons.

I doubt whether other Fraternal Organizations leave this impression upon their Members. Our ancient Brotherhood is founded upon the principles of love, hope, and charity, principles that through many centuries have led to the betterment of humanity. In Masonry, we are taught to search not for the transient pleasure, but for the philosophy and the guidance that will aid us in gaining the most from the short time we are accorded here, by contributing the most to our fellow man.

Our teachings do not pass quickly into and out of existence. Our teachings do not vanish, end, nor die. The advantage we have as Members of this fine organization is that it has been in existence for a long, long, time.

Unfortunately, other Fraternal Organizations do not have the same time - frame of experience as we do. After all, we have centuries of experience and many “Masonic celebrities” have contributed so much to our being. So here, we have, “The Greatest Fraternity in the world.” And, why is it so great?

Because you are a Member, and our Members are the GREATEST men in the world! ©S. K. B 2004

The ADOPT-A-TEACHER Project Was A Success

Helping a teacher in one of our public schools through the Adopt-A-Teacher activity with either monetary or physical assistance is an important activity for Masons. On January 20, 2015, Past Masters Roy Weiland and David Neiman, with Worshipful Master Tom Sorensen met with Jennifer Vaughan, Principal of Lawtey Elementary School. Brothers David and Tom presented a donation from Lawtey Lodge No. 189 for the Adopt-A-Teacher Project. Ms. Vaughan stated the money will be spent wisely and for the students’ activities, and thanked us for the donation.

A Masonic Block Party

By D2 Public Relations / Publicity, W.: Lewis Whidden

On Saturday, 10th of January, Gulf Breeze Lodge No. 347 brought 2 FC’s (James McAlister and Joshua Pasture) to Century Lodge No. 213 for their MM Degree. This, however, was not a usual Degree, this was to allow a Military Member to receive all 3 Degrees (with dispensation) in one day before he deploys.

What started out to be a simple TRI Degree turned out, with the generosity of Century Lodge No. 213, to be a block party! It was fantastic!!

We started at 0800 (from Gulf Breeze Lodge at 0630) with a great breakfast consisting of bacon, sausage and scrambled eggs. Then on to the EA Degree which Gulf Breeze Lodge helped with 5 seats (SW, SD, JD, SS, JS) and the charge, then a light snack and onto the FC Degree which Gulf Breeze Lodge help with four seats (SW, SS, JS, JD), the charge, and a beautiful lecture which was delivered by W.: Dan Ross, PM.

Now off to the MM degree where 6 Brothers from 4 different Lodges were raised, again Century Lodge No. 213 was so gracious, people were coming and going all day, it was like a family reunion with the ebb and flow of masons from 13 different Lodges and two different Districts.

Trust me Brothers this was a good day with Fellowship and sharing of our Craft. The Past Masters conferred the MM Degree with R.: W.: Tommy LaCroy sitting in the East for the first half and R.: W.: Bruce Fortner for the second.

R.: W.: Haskell gave a very inspiring lecture (Brothers it was one to remember) and Gulf Breeze Lodge gave the charge. This day will not be soon forgotten.

Every Lodge Has Stories To Tell... Tell Yours!!!

By R.: W.: George Waas

The Florida Mason contains many articles of interest regarding activities of our Brothers and Lodges, but unless the activities or events contained in those articles reach the general public, we are only communicating to ourselves. It would be far more beneficial if non-Masons learned of the important and rewarding things we do.

This is where public relations and publicity come in. Every Lodge has stories to tell; why not tell the public yours?

Virtually every newspaper devotes a page or section at least periodically on community activities and events, recognizing people and groups that have achieved recognition, or given something back to the community, or reached a milestone...the list goes on and on.

How much would it take for a Mason who observes or participates in such an event or activity to write a brief article for his local newspaper? Think of the potential readership and the very real possibility of generating interest that might well lead to a new petition (or more!) being submitted to your Lodge.

All it takes is to think publicity and public relations, and a little effort to put the event in writing and submit it to your local newspaper. Chances are, if it's worth submitting to the Florida Mason, it's also worth submitting it to your local newspaper. And if this is done once, it will be done again and again once you realize that the public is interested in what Masons do. The more that people read about us, the greater the interest will be in our Fraternity. And this can easily lead to growing our Membership.

The Dew Of Hermon

“Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity! It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron’s beard, that went down to the skirts of his garments; as the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: For there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.”

The oil spoken of is the anointing oil, which the Bible gives specific ingredients and quantities to be used. This oil was not imitated nor poured upon any flesh. All the ingredients in that oil were used for the anointing of people in the ministry and the vessels of the sanctuary.

Like to Dew of Hermon, descending upon the mountains of Zion. Hermon was a mountain, which flourished because of the heavy dew that rested upon it, a fruitful place. The mountains of Zion tended to be barren and lifeless, so the first message in this picture displays one that unity makes the barren and lifeless place fruitful.

I wonder if we are able to catch all what these words are attempting to impart. These are words filled with extremely deep meaning. These words need to be heard in the society in which we live. Today, our society and our world are in desperate need of the message given in these three short verses. The profound message should go deep within the recesses of our being and assist us in finding a better understanding of what unity is all about.

Here we have two wonderful illustrations of unity among brethren. It is like the ointment descending from the head of the high priest to the skirts of his garments and it is like the dew descending in refreshing power, from Hermon’s snowy top. It is one thing to talk about unity, and another thing altogether to dwell in it. We may profess to hold “the unity of the body,” and “the unity of the spirit,” the most precious and glorious truths, and all the while be really full of selfish pride, party spirit, and sectarian feeling, all of which are entirely destructive of practical unity. If Brethren dwell together in unity, they must be receiving the ointment from the refreshing showers from the true Hermon.

See the proof of the excellence of Brotherly Love, where Brethren dwell together in unity and the Lord commands the blessing. If we could persuade all people to live together in peace, it would be wonderful. Most of the time our experience in life tends to be a life where there is everything but harmony. Our fast-pace, more or less, demands that we seek to achieve or climb a ladder. When this becomes the norm in life, there are too many occasions when we do not take the time to understand what others are thinking or feeling. We are always looking over our shoulder wondering who is creeping up on us, trying to by-pass us, or perhaps trying to push us out of line for something we seek. It is important that, when we come to this point in life, we take time to know who we are, and what we are. We must examine our lives and feel the goodness that can be there when all is harmonious.

I am sure there have been times in our lives when we have known this feeling of tranquility, peace, or calm. Perhaps it has come when the kids are finally in bed and settled down. All is quiet, and for a few moments, you can sit back and enjoy the peace of life. The writer is saying that it is this kind of feeling that is great, and should be the norm in our lives. How good and how pleasant it is when we can dwell in unity. It is good for our honor and comfort, and brings constant delight to those who do live in unity. The pleasantness of this is similar to the holy anointing oil. It is profitable as well as pleasing. It cools the scorching heat of men’s passions, just as the dews cool the air and refresh the earth. It moistens the heart, and makes it fit to receive the good seed of the word, and to make it fruitful.

During our lifetimes, we have witnessed all too often, when people disagree on issues, it is not just a difference of opinion, but it is like a wedge that separates and divides. People state their side of an issue and then immediately shut off their hearing. There does not seem to be any willingness to attempt to hear what the other person is trying to say, nor, is there an effort made to try to find a way where things can be worked out in agreement between the parties.

Somehow, there must come a moment when we take the initiative and become the person who is willing to listen and seek to dwell in unity. We are living in a time when there is great discord in our society. People are running here and there, each doing their own thing, not being mindful of others, and are determined to be there first. By dwelling together, we confirm ourselves as Brothers united together in our search for truth. During that gathering, we invigorate each other by having the attentive ear listen to the instructive tongue of a Brother, as he exercises that instructive tongue to impart wisdom and speak from the heart.

Finally, we use the faithful breast as a repository, not only for the secrets of Freemasonry, but also for the confidence entrusted to us, by our Brethren.

So remember my Brothers, strive to be in unison with another, upon the level, with love, helping your Brother.

“BEHOLD, HOW GOOD AND HOW PLEASANT IT IS FOR BRETHREN TO DWELL TOGETHER IN UNITY”

Historical note:

Mount Hermon’s summit is on the border between Syria and Lebanon and stands 9,232 feet high. The southern slopes have been in Israeli control since the six - day war in 1967. Mount Hermon supplies the bulk of the Jordan’s river water, and is Israel’s only ski resort.

Welcome

From Our Administrator

As we approach the close of the 2014-2015 Masonic Year, we once again reflect upon how fortunate we are to have the honor and privilege of serving the Masonic Home of Florida. We realize this may sound repetitive, but there really is no other place like it! Our Community is the culmination of many years of dedicated, generous and talented people coming together to fulfill the mission established almost 100 years ago! This newsletter is intended to share the many wonderful activities in the past six months. Please know it is impossible to fully describe the efforts of so many which go on every day.

Most Worshipful Grand Master James W. Ford and his daughter, Tracey Williams began the year with a goal of receiving gifts to help replace the 14 year old wheelchair van with over 200,000 miles. Well, due to your generosity, the Residents are now being transported in a brand new 2015 Ford Transit 250 Van with customized wheelchair lift and many other special features. This ensures that Residents receive the safest ride and promotes our Home in the very best way possible! Tracey's project also allowed for additional safety and mobility features to be added to the other two vehicles which transport Residents.

The Masonic Home Team would like to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation to our Grand Lodge Officers, Board of Trustees and Members throughout Florida for providing the expertise, commitment, support and vision to continually make our care and services available to the deserving individuals we serve.

With Gratitude,
Lisa Tsotsos, Administrator

Thank You Districts 28 & 29

The Members and Families of Districts 28 & 29 and Lehigh Acres Lodge No. 344 are spoiling the Residents of the Masonic Home and they love it! They delivered over 100 gorgeous poinsettias during the holidays and were back again in April to deliver beautiful Easter baskets to each and every Resident. We really appreciate all they do!

Beautiful New Gazebo Completed

Due to the outstanding generosity of the Masonic Family throughout Florida, a wonderful new gazebo and patio was made possible for the Residents to enjoy. Past First Lady Betsy Griffith designated the funds remaining following the amazing chapel renovation last year to build the gazebo structure. Then First Daughter Tracey Williams designated funds remaining after the purchase of the new wheelchair van be used from her project to purchase the gazebo furniture. This is an excellent example of how working together can make the lives of those we serve better and better!

Cape Coral No. 367 Performs Service Project at Home

Cape Coral Masonic Lodge visited the Masonic Home of Florida on Saturday, March 14th to perform a service project. The group mulched the gardens at the parking lot entrance, and also spent much time pressure washing the parking lot and sections of the walkways near the entrance to the building.

The Brothers in attendance (and the ladies that attended as well) would like to thank the Masonic Home for permitting us to perform this project. They would also like to thank the Resident Tour Guides that offered the group a tour of the facilities. All of the Brothers in attendance had never been to the Masonic Home before and really enjoyed the experience. They look forward to performing a future service project at the Masonic Home, and would like to encourage other Brothers, and Lodges to give some of their time as well.

Gift Made In Memory of Alfred L. Talley From His Family

The Masonic Home of Florida had the honor and pleasure of having Alfred L. Talley reside here for several years. After his passing, his daughter Susan T. Cornwell, a daily visitor who also became a member of our Masonic Home family, made a very generous donation in his memory. Susan wanted to help beautify a particular hallway which her father traveled each day to various activities. Thanks to her gift, we were able to paint, order new handrails, improve lighting, purchase artwork, etc. to make this area more enjoyable and interesting to all. What a wonderful way to honor this amazing man!

An Easter Celebration With The 25th Masonic District

ADMISSION PLANS

Life Care Plan

This traditional plan is available to any Master Mason who becomes a Member of a Florida Lodge prior to the age of 70. He must be a Member in good standing of a Florida Lodge for at least ten years and continually for the last three. The wife or widow of a Master Mason is eligible for residency based on his Membership. Contact your Lodge or the Masonic Home for an application. Upon completion, the application is signed by the Worshipful Master and Secretary. It is then presented to the District Deputy Grand Master for review. The application is then forwarded to the Admissions Committee, Board of Trustees, and Grand Master for final approval. This process takes approximately 30-60 days. Dual Members are also eligible.

Under the Life Care Plan, assets owned by the Resident such as property, bank accounts, stocks, social security, pensions, etc., are deposited with the Masonic Home. These assets are then converted to cash to establish a Resident Maintenance Account. Each month, this account is debited to cover the cost of care. Residents retain 10% of any liquid assets, initially and subsequently, in excess of $10,000 for personal use. When assets are exhausted, the Masonic Home continues to provide care throughout the lifetime of the Resident regardless of his/her ability to pay.

Pay As You Go (Private Pay)

In May of 2005, The Grand Lodge of Florida approved Private Pay admissions for Florida and non-Florida Masons. This plan provides an opportunity for Florida and non-Florida Master Masons and their wives, widows and mothers to retain control of their assets while enjoying all the Masonic Home has to offer. Residents pay a three month deposit and $3,650* monthly for Assisted Living and $6,083* monthly for Skilled Nursing care. Most fees and services are included except medication. For couples entering the Masonic Home, the first person pays this monthly fee and the second person fee is $1,800* monthly. Applicants for Pay As You Go should get in touch with the Masonic Home directly to begin the admission process which can take as little as one week for approval.

Please Note that effective June 2012, Women who are qualified Members of the Order of the Eastern Star are now eligible to apply for the “Pay As You Go” Plan.

Englewood Lodge Adopts-A-Teacher

Earlier this year the MASONS in Englewood Lodge announced they had adopted a Teacher and her class of Kindergarteners at the Vineland Elementary School in Englewood.

The Englewood Masonic Lodge F&AM No. 360 adopted Kathy Wylie and her Kinder Garden class at Vineland Elementary School. One day a little over a month ago a contingent of Masons from the Lodge visited Vineland. They met with Principal, Laura Blunier; Assistant Principal, Jacqui Barber; Class Assistant, Gaby Redmann, and the students.

Ms. Wylie was asked for a wish list of things her Kinder Garden class needed. She responded that, “she had never been asked that question before”. She promptly turned to her students and asked them for input. It took some time to evaluate and determine exactly what support was needed and what could be provided.

At the April 7th Lodge meeting Ms. Kathy Wylie, a number of student representatives, some siblings, and parents were invited to the Lodge for a presentation. After the pledge to the flag and a prayer the class members who were present assembled behind the Sr. Deacon, who was holding the flag, led by Ms Wylie. The Master of the Lodge presented a check for $800 given to Ms Wylie to cover the majority of items they had requested.

The session concluded with ice cream for the guests and the Masonic meeting then proceeded.

Ferry Pass Lodge No. 348 & Pensacola Lodge No. 42 – Lodge Mergers

By R.:W.: Harry Boyette

Ferry Pass Lodge No. 348, had their Installation of officers on January 3, 2015, as all Lodges have done here recently. There was a difference though. Many Lodges continue to struggle with declining Membership and aging Craft. They end up with a few doing everything and just holding on.

Ferry Pass decided to do something about it and have now had their first reading for a merge with Pensacola Lodge No. 42. A Meeting was called with both Lodges well in attendance. There were a lot of ideas and suggestions brought forth, the biggest was whether to merge or consolidate. There was a lot of discussion as to which was the easiest and at the end of the night the agreement was to pursue a merger.

With The Grand Lodge talking of possible combining of Districts and encouraging Lodges to unite to become stronger, I feel this helped drive this endeavor. Senior Grand Warden, R.:W.: Stan Hudson is really driving this and is holding Town Hall Meetings all over the State. My Brothers this is an opportunity many Lodges should take. If finances, Membership or just having people take positions in your Lodge is a problem, go to one of these Town Hall Meetings and hear what he has to say. He is doing it for you and Masonry! He will be in Pensacola on the 28th of March and I expect a good turnout.

My congratulations to the newly Elected and Appointed Officers of Ferry Pass Lodge No. 348 and happiness in their new home at Pensacola No. 42.

Another highlight was watching a son replacing his father as Worshipful Master. R.:W.: Melvin Gaylard proudly passed the gavel to his son Brother Jason Gaylard. There were many family members there to witness this as well as an uncle who sat in the West. A true family affair. I know there is sadness at soon closing this Chapter, but I know there will be many doors opening for these Masons.

Masons - Adopt a Teacher

The Englewood Masonic Lodge No. 360 adopted Ms. Kathy Wylie and her Kinder Garden class at Vineland Elementary School. A contingent of Masons from the Lodge visited Vineland. They met with Principal, Ms. Laura Blunier; Assistant Principal, Ms. Jacqui Barber; Class Assistant, Ms. Gaby Redmann, and the students.

This effort is part of a state-wide-initiative promoted by The Grand Lodge of Florida.

The Masons asked Ms. Wylie for a wish list of things her

Kinder Garden class needed. She responded that, “she had never been asked that question before”. She turned to her students and asked them for input. Ms. Wylie is know for her ability to spark student interest in a variety of things. It will take time to evaluate and determine exactly what support is needed and the Mason can provide.

Hopefully there will be good things to report later.

Teacher, Kathy Wylie, Worshipful Master, Dennis Doome, and Ms. Wylie's Kinder Garden Students at Vineland Elementary School. Also present but not shown were: Masons Gene Jeffers and Bill Boyer; along with Principal Laura Blunier; Asst. Principal, Jacqui Barber; Class Asst. Gaby Redmann.

Lighthouses / More Light

By Bro. Keb Baril

A lighthouse is a structure from which light is projected at night, or which serves as a marker by day, to guide ships sailing in coastal waters. Lighthouses are constructed as important points on a coastline, at entrances to harbors and estuaries, on rocky ledges or reefs, on islands, and even in the water. Lighthouses help identify a ships location, warn ships of potential hazards, and notify them that land is near.

Lighthouses differ from smaller beacons in that a lighthouse includes living quarters for a lighthouse keeper. Today, however, most lighthouses use automatic electric lights that do not require a full – time Resident operator.

The first lighthouses were built long before the time of Christ. The earliest known reference to a lighthouse dates back to 1200 BC. This reference appeared in the Iliad, Homer’s Greek epic poem. The first onshore beacons that were used to guide ships were bonfires. Eventually, bonfires were replaced with iron baskets filled with burning wood or coal and suspended on log poles. It was not until the 18th century that these baskets were replaced by oil or gas lanterns. In the early to mid 20th century, electric beacons replaced these oil and gas lanterns.

One of the most important developments in the technology of lighthouse beacons was the invention of the Fresnel lens. Developed in 1822 by French physicist Augustin Fresnel, the Fresnel lens is a collection of multiple glass prisms (transparent bodies consisting of two or more usually flat surfaces and used to bend a beam of light) that bend nearly all the available light into a powerful central magnifying lens. The magnifying lens projects an intense beam of light that is visible up to 28 miles away. A Fresnel lens used in a lighthouse beacon is an array of glass prisms and a “bull’s eye” lens that is usually encased in a frame of solid brass. The lens, which surrounds a single lamp, consists of a central glass disc surrounded by concentric glass rings that decrease in thickness moving away from the central disc. Horizontal rows of glass prisms are located above and below these concentric glass rings.

Modern lighthouse beacons vary in power from about 10,000 candles to about 1 million candles depending on the prevailing weather conditions and the visibility requirements of shipping traffic in a particular area. (The candle is the unit used to measure the amount of light that a source radiates in a given direction – one candle is equivalent to about one two – hundredth of the brightness of a fifty - watt light bulb). Every lighthouse emits a distinctive series of flashes known as its characteristic. These flash sequences allow ship captains to time intervals between flashes so that they can identify lighthouses, using a publication called the Light List. This publication assigns a number to each lighted beacon, and describes its identifying characteristics. Flash sequences include the following: fixed, revolving, flashing, isophase, group flashing, alternating and Morse code.

A fixed light is a light that shines constantly. A revolving light has longer periods of light than darkness, while a flashing light has longer periods of darkness than of light. An isophase light has equal durations of light and darkness.

A group of flashing light has a specified number of regularly repeating flashes of light, while an alternating light shows light of different colors. Morse code shows short and long flashes that represent dots and dashes, respectively. These dots and dashes are grouped to represent code characters.

Many lighthouses are equipped with fog - horns to help guide ships sailing in foggy weather. These foghorns, which make their sound by quickly releasing compressed air, can be heard for distances up to 8 miles. Ship captains can determine their position by identifying distinctive combinations of long and short horn blasts specific to each lighthouse. Some lighthouses are also equipped with radio beacons that transmit Morse code radio signals. These radio signals, which are distinguished by short (dot) and long (dash) combinations, have a range of up to 200 miles.

By day, lighthouses often serve as landmarks for ship captains seeking to identify their position along a coastline. Thus, lighthouses vary in shape, size, and color. Lighthouses can be square, round, conical, rectangular, and even octagonal. Some are painted with identifying stripes, spirals, or diamond patterns. Some have twin, and in one case, triple towers. Most lighthouses range in height from 33 feet to 208 feet. Lighthouses are built from wood, stone, brick, reinforced concrete, iron, steel, or aluminum. They are designed to withstand local environmental conditions. For example, tall skeletal lighthouses located in the Caribbean offer less surface area to hurricane force winds and waves. Lighthouse designs often reflect architectural styles of the time the lighthouses were built.

In the 19th century, lightships, which are essentially floating lighthouses, were stationed in coastal waters where lighthouses could not be built. A lightship displayed one or more lights from a mast as an aid to navigation. At one time or another, more than 120 lightships dotted the coastal waters of the United States.

By 1985, buoys that were equipped with an automated beacon and fog signal had replaced all U. S. lightships. These massive buoys, called Large Navigational Buoys, measure 40 feet in diameter and are among the largest of a variety of navigational aids known as lesser beacons.

Lesser beacons include river lights, fog signals, and numerous other smaller navigational aids used to mark channels in rivers and harbors. Today, hundreds of thousands of lesser beacons are in use throughout the world.

One of the first known lighthouses was also the greatest and most famous of all. It was built in 285BC at Alexandria, Egypt, on an island at the entrance to the city’s harbor. This lighthouse, called the Pharos of Alexandria, was one of the Seven Wonders of the World. It was over 440 feet tall and stood for 1,500 years, until an earthquake destroyed it. The Romans constructed lighthouses in several harbors, as far away from Rome as Dover in Britain. One of Italy’s most famous lighthouses was built in 1161. Located at Genoa, this lighthouse was manned in 1449 by Antonio

(Columbus, uncle of famous explorer

Christopher Columbus.) Extensive lighthouse construction did not occur in modern times until the 17th century. Prior to that time, most lighthouses were harbor lights serving as homing beacons so boats could safely find their way into port. Beginning in the 17th century, however, as travel on the high seas increased, major coastal lighthouses were constructed in Britain’s American colonies in the 18th century. The first was built in 1716 in Boston Harbor. By 1900, nearly 1,000 lighthouses, both coastal and harbor types had been built in the United States. There may be as many as 50,000 lighthouses existing in the world today, although estimates vary.

At the end of the 20th century, most of these lighthouses were either automated or abandoned. Before the use of electric beacons, the lighthouse keeper had to keep the gas beacon lit, clean the reflecting mirrors, and remove soot from the tower windows. With the introduction of the automated electric beacons, the lighthouse keeper became all, but obsolete. In addition, modern satellite – based navigational systems, that can be installed on ships of all sizes, have replaced the lighthouse as a primary navigational aid. Today, lighthouses that have been automated are used primarily, as backups for marine navigation, while many other lighthouses are no longer in operation. Some national governments have turned control of these abandoned structures over to local governments and nonprofit organizations.

In many cases, abandoned lighthouses have been turned into parks, museums, inns, and research and educational centers.

Now, what does all this have to do with Masonry?

We have Members who cannot display a steady beam of light; just short intervals. We have others, who do just what needs to be done and no more, or a flashing light, where there is more darkness than light; and we have those who shine constantly, or a fixed light, spreading light wherever they may be, and that light is what we depend upon when it comes to, “Lighting the Way of Freemasonry.”

“LET THERE BE LIGHT”

Let’s Have Some Fun And Productivity At Our Meetings

Worshipful Master Alex Carambas rapped the gavel to get everyone's attention. Then the fun began. With the help of the District Deputy, District Committeemen, District Instructor and a wonderful SUPPER, a great time was had by all who attended Lodge that night for the District Deputies visit. Twenty nine Masons and wives exchange conversations jokes and laughter and made this night memorable. Who would have thought that a pair of RED socks could be such fun?

I am not sure which of the Grand Line Officers thought it up, but it has really taken off. Not only was the DDGM and District Instructor wearing them, but now, even many of the Committeeman were also wearing them. Hey they match the tie! LOL (laugh out loud).

Right Honorable Jon Davies gave a heartfelt talk to the Brothers concerning District Instructions. It is amazing how much of a turn around these meeting have had in the last few years. We are lucky that we have people who are thinking out of the box. By taking Instructions to the different Lodges attendance has soured. One month it is in District 1 and the next in District 2 at a different Lodge each time. We, in District 1 and 2 work together, in almost every endeavor, to accomplish our goals. For example our committeemen on their first round of visits give the program and what they are trying to achieve. On the second round they talk about what they have achieved or new ideas to make that program work better. One good idea that Worshipful Bob Denard brought up was to have Masonic Leadership Training either in Lodge for education or better yet, at the end of supper before opening Lodge. We are using this approach now and our numbers are soaring.

The Grand Masters message, on the second go around, is being well received. Several Brothers have asked for a copy to use as education for our Entered Apprentices and Fellow Crafts.

Thank you Most Worshipful Jim Ford for such an inspiring message. As the Grand Master said "We need to have fun in our meetings". So on that note Worshipful Bob Pilgrim said of the picture he took “I have the perfect place to hang it “The guys in the picture are a little nervous about that.

With Friendship and Brotherly Love. Alex Carambas - Worshipful Master, Escambia Lodge No. 15

Fellow Craft Degree Held At Hurricane Lodge No. 401

The Lodges that participated included Clyde S. McLaren No. 395, Village Lodge No. 315, Hialeah Opa Locka Lodge No. 391, Oleeta West Dade No. 145, and Hurricane Lodge No. 401. Other Brothers from District 35 were also there to show their support. It was an incredibly memorable night with more than 70 Brothers, from almost all the Lodges across our two Districts enjoying fellowship, Brotherly love and the strong bond of our Masonic Ritual. The Brothers that were passed last night all stated how special the night was for them with the number of Brothers that were there for their Ritual. We all gained a better understanding of the meaning of Brotherhood.

Fellow Craft Degree held at Hurricane Lodge No. 401. The Brothers from all of the five Lodges in the 34th Masonic District, worked together to perform the Fellow Craft Ritual. Each Lodge was represented in the Chairs and had Brothers being Passed to the Degree of Fellow Craft, as well.

13th Masonic District holds Corky’s Cupboard Fundraiser

Members of the 13th Masonic District of Florida held a “Corkys Cupboard” Fundraiser at our March meeting and collected over 1,000 items to take to the Masonic Home of Florida. Ashlar Lodge No. 98 won the total given plaque but the true winner is our Residents at our Masonic Home!!

Coreen Brownell, “Corky”, came up with the idea in 1990, to hand out sundry items and health & beauty aids to Residents, received from donations. She was a Member of the Masonic Home Service Guild whose Members volunteer here and who are also Eastern Star Members. She initiated a State-wide plea for donations and they started coming in from Lodges and Chapters, and since then, twice a week, “Corky’s Cupboard”, named in her honor, opens for the purpose of supplying the Residents with their toiletry needs. These needed items are listed below. Corky ran the Cupboard for many years until her passing. It continues to be run by the Service Guild, and is located inside the “Now & Then” Gift Shop. It is entirely sustained through kind donations of items, and cash to buy the items the Residents need the most! Sincere “thanks” from all the Residents to those who have donated!

Heroes of '76

It happened every Friday evening, almost without fail, when the sun resembled a giant orange and was starting to dip into the blue ocean.

Old Ed came strolling along the beach to his favorite pier. Clutched in his bony hand was a bucket of shrimp. Ed walks out to the end of the pier, where it seems he almost has the world to himself. The glow of the sun is a golden bronze now.

Everybody's gone, except for a few joggers on the beach. Standing out on the end of the pier, Ed is alone with his thoughts...and his bucket of shrimp.

Before long, however, he is no longer alone. Up in the sky a thousand white dots come screeching and squawking, winging their way toward that lanky frame standing there on the end of the pier.

Before long, dozens of seagulls have enveloped him, their wings fluttering and flapping wildly. Ed stands there tossing shrimp to the hungry birds. As he does, if you listen closely, you can hear him say with a smile, “Thank you. Thank you.”

In a few short minutes the bucket is empty. But Ed doesn't leave.

He stands there lost in thought, as though transported to another time and place.

When he finally turns around and begins to walk back toward the beach, a few of the birds hop along the pier with him until he gets to the stairs, and then they, too, fly away. And old Ed quietly makes his way down to the end of the beach and on home.

If you were sitting there on the pier with your fishing line in the water, Ed might seem like 'a funny old duck,' as my dad used to say. Or, to onlookers, he's just another old codger, lost in his own weird world, feeding the seagulls with a bucket full of shrimp.

To the onlooker, rituals can look either very strange or very empty. They can seem altogether unimportant ... Maybe even a lot of nonsense.

Old folks often do strange things, at least in the eyes of Boomers and Busters.

Most of them would probably write Old Ed off, down there in Florida. That's too bad. They'd do well to know him better.

His full name: Eddie Rickenbacker. He was a famous hero in World War I, and then he was in WWII. On one of his flying missions across the Pacific, he and his seven-member crew went down. Miraculously, all of the men survived, crawled out of their plane, and climbed into a life raft.

Captain Rickenbacker and his crew floated for days on the rough waters of the Pacific. They fought the sun. They fought sharks. Most of all, they fought hunger and thirst. By the eighth day their rations ran out. No food. No water. They were hundreds of miles from land and no one knew where they were or even if they were alive. Every day across America millions wondered and prayed that Eddie Rickenbacker might somehow be found alive.

The men adrift needed a miracle. That afternoon they had a simple devotional service and prayed for a miracle. They tried to nap. Eddie leaned back and pulled his military cap over his nose. Time dragged on. All he could hear was the slap of the waves against the raft...

Suddenly, Eddie felt something land on the top of his cap. It was a seagull!

Old Ed would later describe how he sat perfectly still, planning his next move. With a flash of his hand and a squawk from the gull, he managed to grab it and wring its neck. He tore the feathers off, and he and his starving crew made a meal of it - a very slight meal for eight men. Then they used the intestines for bait. With it, they caught fish, which gave them food and more bait... And the cycle continued. With that simple survival technique, they were able to endure the rigors of the sea until they were found and rescued after 24 days at sea.

Eddie Rickenbacker lived many years beyond that ordeal, but he never forgot the sacrifice of that first life-saving seagull... And he never stopped saying, “Thank you.” That's why almost every Friday night he would walk to the end of the pier with a bucket full of shrimp and a heart full of gratitude.

Lois was good as her word and showed up with Brother Bob in tow. After they had sat down with their dinners and gotten comfortable, our Worshipful Master, Ron Glover, came into the dining hall and announced that we had a special person in the building today who had reached the milestone of 65 Years in Masonry! He then proceeded to present Brother Hersh with his Certificate from The Grand Lodge and his 65 Year Pin. Brother Hersh thanked us all and said that he had been totally surprised!
