

MODULE II
LESSON VI
THE MASONIC HOME

To complete this examination you will need to reference the following Grand Lodge publications: Module II Study Guide and your Digest of Masonic Law.

1. The Masonic Home is under the direct supervision of the Grand Master's Masonic Charities Committee.
() True () False
2. By virtue of being a non-profit organization, our Masonic Home is not subject to federal and state regulations normally applicable to a retirement/health care type facility.
() True () False
3. The only person on the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home who may give orders and/or instructions to the Administrator of the Home is the Chairman of the Board.
() True () False
4. The Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home is required to meet at least twice a month.
() True () False
5. Only Master Masons in good standing in a Florida Lodge are eligible to be members of the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home.
() True () False
6. The Masonic Home of Florida derives its operating funds from the Masonic Home Endowment Fund.
() True () False
7. The Senior Grand Warden is the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home by virtue of Grand Lodge regulations.
() True () False
8. The Masonic Home Endowment and Investment Committee is made up of twenty (20) Master Masons in good standing in Florida Lodges.
() True () False
9. The regular Subcommittees' of the Endowment Procurement Committee are: 1) Let Your Pennies Make Good Cents; 2) Wills & Gifts; 3) Masonic Home 100.
() True () False
10. The Endowment Procurement Committee is charged with responsibility for making basic policies for the operation of the Masonic Home.
() True () False

11. While the Board of Trustees has responsibility for the real property of the Masonic Home, responsibility for personal property lies with the Committee on Grand Lodge properties.
 True False
12. The Corporate Board has authority to engage the services of various Trust Banks or State or Federal Bank Trust Departments to be advisors concerning the investment and safety of the Masonic Home Endowment Fund.
 True False
13. Only the Grand Lodge at its Annual Grand Communication may alter the rules and regulations governing admission to the Masonic Home.
 True False
14. While the Grand Master makes the appointments to the Board of Trustees of the Masonic Home, several others have the right to nominate one member of the Board.
 True False
15. The Masonic Home Endowment Procurement Committee is responsible for holding all the assets of the Endowment Procurement Fund in trust.
 True False
16. Membership on the Masonic Home Endowment and Investment Committee is contingent upon the Brother having a background in management and investment of funds or some similar strong business background.
 True False
17. In addition to providing rules for the administration of the Masonic Home, the Rules and Regulations that govern the Masonic Home also establish directions for the management of the Hal W. Adams Hospital Service Fund and Emergency and Nonresident Relief Funds.
 True False
18. The forms used to make application for admission to the Masonic Home (Life Care Plan) and for seeking assistance from the Relief Funds are prepared and provided by the Grand Treasurer's office.
 True False
19. The Rules and Regulations governing our Masonic Home do not make provisions for children to have membership in the Home, however, the Board is empowered to provide help, aid and assistance to orphan children as it deems necessary in the event an application for relief is made.
 True False
20. All funds which are donated, bequeathed or otherwise transferred or assigned to the Grand Lodge without specific instructions for use are deposited to credit of The Masonic Home Endowment Fund.
 True False